A very important message re: parish and Father Darline's email address Robert Brown Diocesan Data Protection Lead has sent this message for us to include in our newsletter: in my capacity as Data Protection Officer for the Diocese I have become aware that several individuals who have use of a PRCDTR email account for their role are still using personal email addresses. This practice creates several problems both organisationally and for the individual which could potentially lead to legal action. Firstly, all diocesan communication needs to be secure and as such failure to use Diocesan email for Diocese and Parish work breaches that security, this in turn could nullify Diocesan insurance should a subsequent problem arise. Such use of personal email also creates a significant risk in terms of Data Protection Law. A breach of the UK General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) could result in fines running potentially into hundreds of thousands of pounds which would fall to the Diocese to pay. Please be aware of the change in the email address at the top of this newsletter when you contact Father Darline and update in your address book. Darline.Joseph@prcdtr.org.uk and to contact the parish okehampton@prcdtr.org.uk

The new website www.stbonifaceokehampton.com This is now live! Many thanks to Dominic Barnard who worked so hard to get this up and running without taking any payment for his work. We are grateful for his expertise and knowledge. Thanks also to Pam and Anne who liaised with Dominic to get the new website designed.

Advance notice PPC AGM: This is set for Tuesday 4th July at 7.30pm in the church hall at St Boniface. Please make sure that you have this in your diaries. All parishioners are welcome to attend.

The next CWL meeting is on Friday 7th July at 10.30am after the 10am mass in the church hall, all ladies welcome.

A reminder that CWL serves coffee after the 11am Sunday mass on the first and third Sunday of each month. The repository is also open at these times.

Ministers of the word: More parishioners are needed to join the readers rota if you would like to volunteer, please speak to Father Darline in the first instance. Martin Perry is responsible for organising the rota and he often has difficulty finding sufficient readers at both Saturday evening and Sunday masses.

The next Boot Fair is Saturday 15th July: Boot Fairs are now earning the Parish £300 plus per month. More able-bodied volunteers are needed to help with set up 8am until 9am and clearing up 12:30pm until 1:30pm. Please do not leave this to the same people each month. This is your Parish, and your help is needed. Please contact Pam Pemberton - 07917 054 625 if you can offer any help at the above times or if you can/would like to help on the morning. If you have any saleable items in good condition, please arrange with Pam Pemberton to drop them in the church hall. PLEASE NOTE: clothes and electrical items cannot be accepted. Next boot fair: Saturday July 15th.

Vocations to Priesthood Day of Reflection 8th July 2023: See details on the poster on the notice board.

The Pope's Intention for July: For a Eucharistic life. We pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.
